

LEED 2009 and LEED v4 Low-emitting Composite Wood Credit Requirements

	LEED 2009	LEED v4
Program Owner	USGBC	USGBC
Notable Dates	Registration close: October 31, 2016. Closed for registration and certification (sunset): June 30, 2021.	Launched November 2013.
Credit Acceptance	Pathway 1: Composite panels manufactured with no added urea-formaldehyde resins (NAUF) Pathway 2: Composite panels manufactured with CARB ULEF or CARB NAF resins	Composite panels manufactured with CARB ULEF or CARB NAF resins
ARAUCO NA Products that qualify	VESTA ULEF (CARB ULEF) VESTA NAF (CARB NAF)	VESTA ULEF (CARB ULEF) VESTA NAF (CARB NAF)

Published 10/12/15

Acronyms:

USGBC – US Green Building Council

NAUF – No added Urea-formaldehyde

CARB – California Air Resources Board

CARB ULEF – panels manufactured with CARB ultra-low emitting formaldehyde resins (requires CARB certification)

CARB NAF – panels manufactured with CARB no added formaldehyde resins (requires CARB certification)

For further information regarding Arauco North America’s products, please contact your Arauco Sales Representative.

